

Free Musical Activities in the Oxford, West Chester, and Lionville areas presented by Joan Cloutman, Director of Kindermusik in West Chester, Lionville and Oxford

Summer Story time activities 2010

- Oxford - Monday, June 28, at the Oxford Library at 10:30 - We will explore colors through the book the "The Deep Blue Sea". The summer library theme of exploring the ocean will be included in this musical story time. Story time spaces are limited. Please call the library several weeks before the event to register and hold your spot. You may call 610 932-9625 to register in Oxford.
- West Chester - Friday, June 25 @ 10:30 at the Chester County Book and Music Company in the West Goshen Shopping Center - Join us as we hear the story of a country rabbit who longs to take a trip to the ocean to hear the waves and smell the salty air in the book "Little Rabbit and the Sea". We'll wiggle our arms like the octopus, and move way down low to the ocean bottom with our voices then way up high as we go sailing on the sea above.
- West Chester - Monday, August 23rd, @ 10:30, at the Chester County Book and Music Company as we take a trip to the farm through song and stories with the book "Cows in The Kitchen".

Fall Demo Days and Open House - Sept.

Come and experience a free Kindermusik class in early fall:
